

Membership:

Our association comprises 4 (four) different membership categories:

1. Associate Member

An associate member means a member, not being an ordinary or life member.

2. Life Member

Means a member or associate member who is elected to life membership

3. Ordinary Committee Member

Means a member of the committee who is an office-bearer of the association.

4. Ordinary Member

Means a member who has had warlike or operational service at any time in any post World War II theatre of war, or in any special operations area, with the Australian Armed Forces, Australian Federal Police, the Allied Armed Forces or the United Nations.

For further details on Membership Generally, on how to Apply for Membership and other matters related to membership, including Fees and Discipline, please refer to our Constitution, and Part 2 – Membership in particular.

Our association seeks to encourage growth in our membership and encourages anyone interested, to contact any of our committee members for further discussion and amplification.

Currently, fees associated with membership are:

- a) Membership Application Fee: $10
- b) Annual Renewal Fee: $10 (Due on 30th December each year)

In the event that an application is not accepted, the Membership Application Fee shall be refunded in full to the applicant.

To apply for membership, please click on the link 'Membership Application Form', and after completing, post with your cheque to the Association, addressed as follows:

The Secretary
Blue Mountains Vietnam Veterans and Associated Forces Inc.
PO Box 55
Springwood NSW 2777